About Us

The Family Access Services team comprises a group of experienced professionals who:

- understand child development stages;
- possess knowledge of relevant legal, welfare and government processes;
- understand trauma-informed practices;
- prepare thoroughly for service delivery and familiarise themselves with each situation
- understand common issues that arise during service provision and confidently manage difficult situations;
- are experienced in parenting strategies and can respectfully support parents where necessary;
- are culturally aware and sensitive; and
- are aware of how their own personal values and beliefs might impact on the way they work with clients.
